

VAT PASTEURIZER OPERATOR ANDBASIC
CHEESEMAKING/GRADING WORKSHOP

Cornell University, Department of Food Science & NYS Agriculture and Markets
178 Stocking Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY 14853
October 13-15, 2009

We will be holding a Vat Pasteurizer Workshop at Cornell University on October 13, 2009. This will be an all day event. The morning session will include lectures on equipment, construction, regulatory requirements and chart recorders. In the afternoon, attendees will go to the processing area and pasteurize a vat of milk, hands-on. The cost for the one day Vat Pasteurizer Course is $45 which includes lunch. You can register for just this one day.

We will also be holding a basic cheese maker's and cheese grading course October 14-15, 2009. Yancey's Fancy's cheese maker Brian Bailey will walk you through making several different types of cheeses during the first day, hands-on. The second day will consist of cheese judging and defect detection. This session will be led by head cheese judge for the NY State Fair competition, Charles Lindberg. Cost for this session will be $130 (includes lunch both days) and will be limited to 20 attendees. You must attend both days.

You can register for all 3 days. The cost for the full workshop is $160.

If you are driving, a parking pass will be required for each day you are here. So, if you are coming for 1 day, its $8, 2 days is $16, and 3 days is $24. Please make sure your payment reflects the correct amount for parking. Parking passes will be forwarded with registration confirmation.
