I. Information Statement

1. Standard Form

General

Section g. on the Information Statement needs to be completed for all medication and indicate instructions were given to the owner when medicine is sent home with the puppy. If "see attached" is in sec. g, the attachment of treatments must have an animal description-breed, sex; color and date-of-birth. It is on some of the attachments but not all. Also, if there are any abnormalities noted in the health exams, box 2 should be checked and condition noted or attach the health chart that says the puppy has been cleared as fit for sale.
