The stores contract states the new owner must take animal to a Vet within four days. This statement contradicts with article 35D with states the owner has up to 14 days. The pet store should remove any medical diagnosis from their contract, specifically grade murmur, hypoglycemia statements.

Lastly the store owner is making the new puppy owner sign a liabilities release form for a particular breed regarding hypoglycemia. In the last two sentences of the document it states if the puppy should come down with hypoglycemia the new owner will take full responsibility and releases A World of Pups from any liabilities. This is not in compliance with regulations in Article 35D.
