Cervid TB Importation Requirements*

*for non-CWD susceptible species only. Importation of CWD-susceptible species is prohibited

Is the herd of origin TB accredited?

NO →

Is it possible to conduct a whole herd test of all cervids greater than 1 year of age?

YES ↓ (from origin)

No further test required.

YES ↓

Has a whole herd test been conducted in the last 12 months ?

NO ↓

Does the herd meet the federal definition of a monitored herd?

NO ↓

Conduct a whole herd test prior to move-ment.

YES ↓

Has a whole herd test been conducted within the past 6 months?

YES ↓ (to destination)

NO ↓

YES ↓

NO ↓

An additional TB test within 90 days before movement is required

Isolate the cervids to be moved from all other cervids and cattle for 4 months and then TB test as an assembled herd. Conduct a second TB test at least 90 days later and within 90 days before movement.

NO ←

Is the destination herd TB accredited?

YES ↓

The animal(s) must be isolated at the herd of destination for 90 days and then retested negative for TB before being comingled with the herd.